

WHY TAKE BAND?

"I am in Band because I love the people and I love the performance, This is my family. Being here is the most important thing I've ever done and when I'm gone I'll remember the experiences forever."

- Katie Sibbold, class of '04

"Band is an escape from the real world. I love displaying emotions through music. It can put you in many different moods and cheer you up at times. Music is always unique; it will never be the same twice."

- Joe Girard, class of '05

"Band gives me a sense of honest belonging, and its one of the only places I and many others feel genuinely accepted and loved. Band is warmth.....I'm here to be part of the team."

- Kristen Reynolds, class of '05

"Band teaches me a lot about life: the discipline, dedication, how hard work pays off, how to respect, and how to enjoy."

- Rebekah Gorzalski, class of '05

"The professional feeling is the sense of pride BAND builds in you."

- John Schellhase, class of '04

"I am in BAND because I like being part of something great! Where many people come together doing something they love to do and working their hardest at something to produce a great product."

- Kelly Courtney, class of '05
